

Need some help?

Utility Payment Assistance

Residents in Payne County have options regarding assistance with their City of Stillwater utility payments. Many churches and nonprofit organizations offer financial help toward utility bills to those who qualify.

Because these services vary depending on timing and available funds, it is recommended to verify aid options with members of those organizations.

Other Assistance Options

Food, shelter, clothing, youth assistance and more are also offered by many churches and nonprofit organizations in Payne County.

Because these services vary depending on timing and available funds, it is recommended to verify aid options with members of those organizations.
